Strong Plea Heard To Continue Transportation For Kindergarten

Receive Special Sports Awards

Jim Bennett and Burt Damon were awarded special honors at the Boosters Club annual All-Sport banquet last week, as the only two boys to win four varsity letters in four different sports since 1946.

Bennett also received the coveted Boosters Club trophy as outstanding athlete in the senior class.

Trophies were awarded by the Varsity Club to boys judged the most valuable players in each.

Nearly 50 parents of youngsters who will enter the South School kindergarten next fall made a strong plea to the School Committee Tuesday night to provide round-trip transportation for their children.

The School Committee this year ruled that kindergarten pupils, on double sessions in every school, may be transported to school in the morning and back home at the close of school in the afternoon. In effect, this means that kindergarten pupils will get one-way transportation — either to school in the morning or from school in the afternoon. Some other means of transportation for the pupils

The Rev. A. Graham Baldwin, school minister, offered the invocation and Headmaster John M. Kemper gave the graduation address. LITTLE LEAGUE TAG DAY FRIDAY

The Andover Little League will be knocking at doors throughout the town between 5:30 and 6:30 Friday for their annual tag day.

This year Andover youths are well represented with better than 300 boys playing in the Andover Little League. This year alone they have increased by four teams, two in the majors and two in the minors, making 18 teams.

All the money is turned over to the boys, not in cash but as equipment. It takes approximately $3,500 to equip and protect the boys.

Will Discuss Building Plans

A joint meeting of representatives of the Planning Board, Board of Public Works, School Committee and Board of Health June 17 will discuss tentative plans of the Realty Construction and Engineering Co. for close to 300 homes in the town.

The firm, headed by Judge A. Sartorelli, owns more than 30 acres off Elm st., in the Westwind rd. section and larger acreage in West Andover off Lovejoy rd.

The same firm originally had discussed building many homes in the Elm st. section, following purchase of the Flying Feather Farm. At that time, the Planning Board and other official agencies of the town discouraged the undertaking, mostly on the grounds that there couldn't possibly be enough water in the area to serve the new

"Night" For Bertha Anderson

Andover Chapter 187, O.E.S., held a "Bertha R. Anderson Night" Tuesday evening, June 3, to honor one of its members on her retirement as secretary after 21 years of faithful service. She had been an officer for 30 years. Friends gathered from near and far to pay honor to such a faithful member.

The entertainment was under the direction of Miss Joyce Mowat, supervisor of music in the public schools and she prepared a most delightful musical program. The following took part: trumpet, John Clift, William Cole and Charles Black; accordion, Robert Robichaud; girls sextet, Carol Gesing, Caroline Grant, Norma Jean Peatman, Doris DeHart, Joan Ellen Simeone and Linda Low.

A beautiful watch was presented to Mrs. Anderson as a token of the gratitude and high esteem in which she is held by all. The past matrons presented a bouquet of 21 roses in a pretty ceremony. The evening concluded with refreshments.

Bradlee PTA Feted Grads

The annual Ballardvale Parent Teacher Association banquet was held last Thursday evening in the Community Room, with a good attendance. A ham dinner was served. Joseph Serio, as master of ceremonies, gave the welcome address and the Rev. Ralph A. Rosenblad said the blessing.

Supt. of schools and Mrs. Edward I. Erickson, the Rev. and Mrs. Rosenblad, Mrs. George Cheyne, teacher of sixth grade, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Serio, Lionel Goulet, James Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wrigley and K. Thomas Call were seated at the head table. Supt. Erickson gave a short talk about the opening of the new South Elementary school and also had a message for the sixth graders who were guests of the PTA. Mr. Goulet, principal of the Bradlee School, spoke to the children and Mrs. Cheyne gave a few remarks.

Toasts and roasts were given to the retiring officers and teachers.

Mr. Call, guest speaker, then entertained with tricks of magic using the theme "Play of Your Lives". This concerned messages on fire safety.

Following the program Joseph Serio presented the retiring president James Gardner, a past president's pin and a tie and cuff link set. Two charter members, Mrs. T. S. Haggerty and Mrs. James Nicoll, were present and Mrs. Haggerty was presented a bouquet of flowers.

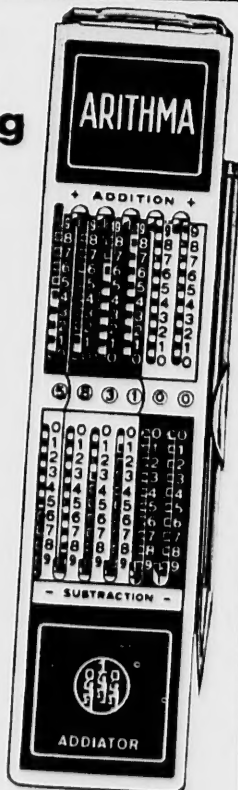

Mr. Gardner presided at the business meeting and Mrs. Henry Wrigley, secretary, read her report and gave a brief history of the PTA since its origin in 1929 when Mrs. Miles Ward was first president.

An open house will be held at the Bradlee School for past presidents, teachers and members and friends of the PTA June 16 from 7:30-8:30 p.m. It was voted to give the remaining money in the treasury to Mr. Goulet to be used at his discretion for the children of the school.

The following sixth graders were the guests: Katherine Ackermann, Donna Auchterlonie, Gale Batchelder, William Batchelder, Leslie Batcheller, Nancy Colpitts, Katherine Connelly, Richard Davison, Loraine Dunn, Harry Dustin, Jo Ellen Grant, Charles Johnson, Elizabeth Kupis, Emily Lee Lawrence, Mildred Mucci, Beverly Newcomb, Gary Norris, Carol Perry, Joseph Serio, Mitchell Slobodnik and Robert Walent.

It runs for fifteen minutes, and shows the wonders of U.S. Highway 101, which flanks the Pacific Ocean from Mexico to Canada. Once called the King's Highway, it heads north from San Diego on its way to Los Angeles and San Francisco. It passes through Northern California's Big Tree country, along the Oregon coast and on to Washington's great Olympia Mountain Range.

Vacation Loans

Each year the Memorial Hall Library makes possible an extended loan on many books which will go along with vacationists who go out of town. Books which have been part of the library's holdings for a year or more, books not in special demand and books which do not fall into the non-renewable classification may be borrowed in as large numbers as the adult borrower feels he wishes. For the children, boys and girls may take six at a time, instead of the usual four for the normal two week period, or for the summer, if they are books that are not in great demand. Parents with children may take what they wish for the summer. All summer loans are stamped for Sept. 15, but may be returned at any time.

Summer Fun At The Library

Several programs have been planned for boys and girls at the Memorial Hall Library this summer. The "Bookworms" will soar into space, exploring our solar system. This familiar reading project will run from June 16 to Sept. 12. Story hours are planned for Monday mornings, from 10:15 to 11 o'clock, every Monday from June 23 through the end of July. Two groups of puppet makers will work this summer: children of grades 1-3 will make stick puppets, of grades 4-9 marionettes or list puppets. Those wishing to enter a group should sign up before June 24, grades 4-9, and before June 25, if grades 1-3.

Since puppet making requires a good deal of help for each child, groups are limited to 18 children each. The younger grades will make puppets, act out the play, rehearse and give their play on July 23. Older students of the craft of puppetry will make their marionettes and plan to give their plays later in the fall after school opens. For full details of the summer fun, boys and girls should see the special flyers printed up for them at the library.

New Anthology Added To The Library

An unusual anthology of Japanese literature, compiled by Donald Keene, has been purchased by the Memorial Hall Library, and is one of the loveliest sets of books added in a long time. Volume 1 covers from the earliest era to the mid-nineteenth century; vol. 2, covers from then to the present day. The book includes the lyric poems of the 8th century period, classic novels, a Walden-like "Account Of My Hut", essays and sophisticated novels and plays, and short stories that might have been plotted and written by one of our best short story writers, since the themes and character drawing have life-like qualities, easily recognized by the by the American reader.

For those to whom the reading of Japanese names is difficult, a suggestion has been made that the reader say Japanese word aloud once, with equal emphasis on each syllable. Consonants are as in English, and vowels are all broad, as in Italian.

Dr. Keene, the compiler and editor, is a graduate of Columbia University, where he now teaches Japanese literature. He has held the post of Lecturer in Japanese at Cambridge, England, and has spent two years on a grant in Japan, where he performed in a Japanese period play, the first Westerner to attempt such a feat. That he was commended by the oldest and greatest of the Japanese actors is further tribute to his grasp of the language.

Also in West Andover, the Planning Board has under consideration a plan calling for development of the Wild Rose Farm with some 145 house lots. Presented by Harry Axelrod, the plan actually shows about 168 lots, but some are frontage lots on accepted streets that do not come under Planning Board control.

The plan is currently being studied by the Planning Board, Board of Public Works and Board of Health.

College Needs Water

In the Elm st. area, which will be discussed with Judge Sartorelli next Tuesday night, the town has also received a request from Merrimack College to provide water at a peak rate of 160 gallons per minute for the new student union building.

Water flow studies are being made by Camp, Dresser and McKee, based on the potential of the system when the current water main construction on Woodland rd. is finished. When the new main is part of the system, it is expected that part of Elm st. will go over to the high pressure system, enabling some homes in areas such as Johnson Acres to receive better water service.

In the past, it has been explained that 150 gallons a minute could be taken from one hydrant on the line, but the next one would furnish absolutely none. Thus, with a peak capacity of 150 gallons a minute, from which house services and fire protection must be furnished, it had been anticipated that little extra water could be furnished the College, or the proposed home development in the area.

With the new main and a change to the high pressure system, Water Supt. Donald Bassett has explained that new studies are needed. It is possible, he said, that better service can be provided to the College and that homes already in the area will get more water, at a better pressure. But whether the water distribution will be improved to an extent that many new homes could be serviced is a question that Bassett couldn't answer without the finished studies.

The house was decorated for the occasion and the bride to be received many gifts. Those attending were Mrs. Fred Doyle, Mrs. Josephine Donovan of Lawrence, Mrs. Leverett Putnam and Mary, Mrs. George Fraser, Mrs. Roger Lewis, Mrs. Arthur Peatman, Mrs. Robert Marland, Mrs. Dean Hudgins, Mrs. William Stewart, Mrs. William Titcomb, Mrs. William Trow, Mrs. Harry Chadwick, Mrs. Albert Bourdelais, Mrs. Harold Johnson, Mrs. Herbert Carter, Mrs. John Gorrie, Mrs. Doris Eno, Mrs. Frank Robinson and Mrs. Haartz.

YWCA Planning Day Camp

Mrs. Albert Retelle of West Andover will direct the activities of a day camp for girls this summer, conducted under the auspices of the Y.W.C.A., Lawrence.

Mrs. Retelle has been associated with the Y.W.C.A. for several years as an active member and a teacher of specialized "Y" courses. She received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Home Economics from the University of Massachusetts and was then chosen to go to Germany under the International Farm Youth Exchange Program. After her return, Mrs. Retelle directed 4-H Club activity in Merrimack County, N. H.

This will be the third year that Mrs. Retelle has been appointed director of the Y.W.C.A. Day Camp. She will be assisted by a capable and qualified staff in carrying out the well integrated camp program which will provide swimming instruction, with Red Cross certificates for those completing requirements; dramatics, nature lore, and handicrafts. The crafts program is under the direction of Mrs. Ronald Valentine, also of Andover.

The camp itself is situated on Captains Pond in Salem, N.H., and transportation will be provided from pick-up points in all Greater Lawrence communities. In keeping with the traditional purposes of the Association toward developing mind, spirit and body among youth, programming has been adapted to meet the special needs of girls from the age 10-13.

An Indian theme will be followed throughout the camping period, which begins June 30 and ends Aug. 8. More detailed information may be obtained by calling the Y.W.C.A.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — June, 1908

Chief of Police Pomeroy had his automobile trap out Sunday and, as a result, three or four summonses have been issued for the speedy drivers. There have been complaints that some young men and boys are warning the motorists about the trap and severe reprimands have been given them.

William H. Higgins has sold his fine horse, Loring H., to a Boston gentleman, the president of the Beacon Trust Co. The horse is one of the fastest in these parts.

The worst automobile accident that ever has happened in Andover occurred last Saturday afternoon shortly before six o'clock on Main st., a few yards above Morton st. An auto driven by L. M. Nute of New York City, containing three other men, was involved. The men had been to the Andover-Exeter game and, as they came down the hill, passed an auto by driving on the car tracks. When turning back into the proper lane, the left rear wheel stuck in the tracks, then, freeing, caused the car to swerve against the gutter. The wood spokes of the right rear wheel broke and the car turned completely over. It righted itself about 10 feet away. Bernard W. Hill of Boston was the most seriously injured, requiring three hours in surgery. He later was taken to a private hospital in Boston. The other occupants were injured less severely. The automobile, a Stoddard-Dayton, was towed to the rear of the Fire Station.

25 Years Ago — June, 1933

One extra teacher must be hired for the High School in September. The School Committee revealed Tuesday night that the enrollment will be 450 instead of the building's capacity of 410. Thus, one sixth grade class will move out of the old high school building into John Dove School. The fifth and sixth grade West and Indian Ridge pupils will be moved from the John Dove School, with their teacher, into a room at the Indian Ridge School to make room for Miss Stack's sixth graders from the high school building.

Expenditures in public welfare were only 40 percent of last year's figure for the month of May, according to the town accountant. He said $527 was spent this year compared to over $1330 a year ago.

A lengthy and at times argumentative hearing was held in Boston yesterday on the state school subject. The meeting was called by the Ways and Means Committee, to which the bill was sent after the House kept the measure alive last week against the wishes of its Welfare Committee.

The Andover Legion Bugle and Drum Corps won $50 first prize money last Sunday in the competition held in Lawrence.

10 Years Ago — June, 1948

Seventy-five students were graduated from Pynchard High School Tuesday evening at the 89th commencement exercises.

A class of 248 was graduated at Phillips Academy, during exercises at Cochran Chapel. The president of Tufts College gave the commencement address.

Kenneth L. Sherman, a veteran of two wars, was elected commander of Post 8, American Legion, at a meeting Thursday night in Post quarters.

HAROLD BAKER HAS RELIC OF ACCIDENT

In the "Down The Years" column this week is an account of a serious automobile accident, following the Exeter-Andover baseball game.

Harold Baker of High st. brought an interesting relic of that accident to the Townsman office recently.

A piece of the old wooden body had been saved by Mr. Baker's mother, with a notation of when the accident occurred. The car was a Stoddard-Dayton and was said to be travelling 18 miles an hour when it smashed up.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

A Sad State Of Events

The first, not-so-faint indications were heard this week that the state had decided to shrug off its responsibilities on Shawsheen rd.

Water Supt. Donald Bassett reported to the Board of Public Works Monday night that a request for a water service, referred to the state, had been dumped back in the town's lap. Ordinarily, until such time as the state has decided it is finished with a Chapter 90 construction project, the town would have no authority to grant a water service which involved tearing up the road.

By implication, when a state Public Works Department official tells the town that the state has no control over allowing the street to be torn up, he is saying that the state no longer feels responsible for the road.

Board members were quick to see this implied abandonment by state and it is not entirely unexpected. Only last week, in a news story in this newspaper, the Board was described as worried about the possibility that the state might get out from under by simply turning the road back to the town. This could well leave the town with several thousand dollars worth of work to do, plus possibly fixing the sunken section, which might run into many thousands.

It seems almost unbelievable that the state would abandon its responsibilities — particularly when BPW members have often pointed out that poor state engineering was responsible for most of the problems there.

However, it appears that there is no recourse to law if the state decides to slide out from under. In no way has the town had anything to do with the planning, construction or engineering. The town doesn't, we are told, even have the right to refuse to accept the street — the state can simply accept it from the contractor and turn it back to the town, with or without prior approval from the Board of Public Works.

It looks as though the town may be stuck with a fairly expensive job — for which there is no provision in the annual budget. If this happens, the blame should be placed squarely on the state Department of Public Works. And residents of the community might even be well advised to consider whether a bungled job, followed by an unwillingness to assume responsibility for it, would have happened under a different state administration.

Safety Precautions Needed

The state, or its contractors working on new Route 28, should take safety precautions now to avoid accidents on paved sections of the highway.

It's become common knowledge that some portions of the major thru-way have been black-topped. And some drivers are beginning to make use of those strips as a testing ground, to find out how fast their cars will go.

This might be shrugged off as unimportant — but should there be any widespread use of the finished sections for these purposes, there almost certainly will be an accident of severe nature. Then the subject won't be so unimportant.

It would make sense for those in charge of this project to find a way of keeping vehicles off the road at night, until such time as it is opened for public use.

WHICH MAN PASSED THE N. P. * TEST?

*NINETY PERCENT

The poised, smartly-dressed man at the left of course. You can tell at a glance... and that's why the Ninety-Percent Test is so important. People judge you by what they see (sometimes that's all they have to go on) and ninety percent of what they see of you is what you wear. The fresh finish of drycleaned clothes is more than an extra touch... like a flower in the buttonhole. It's an integral part of good grooming. The state of your clothes tells volumes about the kind of person you are. In fact, your clothes never stop talking about you. You buy your clothes to make a good impression. As you wear them, have them drycleaned often. A smart man takes care to keep that impression fresh.

Let me tell you what I saved when I drove a new Plymouth...then bought one!

Just like a lot of other people, I was putting off buying a new car... even though we sure needed one. Then I found out what my Plymouth dealer was offering in the way of low prices and really big trades.

Mister, when I saw what I saved I knew there was no use putting off any longer! Got more for my old car than I believed possible. (Plymouth dealers need used cars and can sell all they get!) Got a terrifically low price on the new Plymouth... and choice of models besides... hard-tops, sedans, convertibles, wagons.

And I saved a cool $140 on the ride alone! Plymouth's top-luxury ride, Torsion-Aire Ride, is standard at no extra cost, while you have to pay up to $140 for the top ride of competing "low-price 3" cars.

What's more, I got the car that proved it can save me gasoline, by winning the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run. A car with Silver Dart Styling that is so far ahead right now it will still be worth more when I trade. With the kind of easy handling that makes every minute of driving a downright thrill! The stamina to stand up without nagging adjustments and big repairs... a car as much better built as it is better looking!

Any wonder I quit waiting? Take my tip... get your Plymouth bargain right now.

Today's best buy...tomorrow's best trade...

STRONG PLEA FOR TRANSPORTATION

entering the afternoon session and for those concluding the morning session must be provided under the decision.

As a result of the meeting, the parents agreed to form a small committee to seek possible solutions to the problem, which the School Committee described as mainly financial. This group, it is understood, will investigate the possibility of private transportation, as well as some method of carrying the youngsters to and from school via public transportation.

George Schmidt of Forbes Inc. was spokesman for the parents.

He told the Committee, in a session held in Central School Auditorium, that as long as the town provides kindergarten, equal opportunity should be given all children to attend. This would not be the result, he claimed, based on the Committee's decision against two-way transportation. Some two-thirds of the children involved in the South School kindergarten would require transportation, he stated. A recent estimate of the September enrollment in that class by the school department placed the total enrollment at 67.

The parents raised several main objections: that families without an available car at the noon hour can not transport their children; that citizens should not be involved in driving groups of young children to school because it is dangerous and problems of car insurance arise; and that, generally, children who can get to the kindergarten would have an unfair advantage over those unable to attend, when the children all entered the first grade.

Cost Factor

The cost of kindergarten to the town was disclosed by Chairman Roy A. Russell — $17,893 for salaries, $1500 for supplies and $1232 for transportation.

One added bus at the noon hour, to provide two-way transportation, would cost an estimated $6400 in extra mileage payments, he predicted. Supt. Edward I. Erickson later said this might be a minimum estimate because none of the buses have been hired to provide noontime service and special arrangements would be required with the driver-owners.

He told the group that kindergarten was first started in Andover in 1946 and no transportation was provided until 1952, when the School Committee approved it for Central School kindergarten pupils. Later, a beach wagon was engaged to carry Indian Ridge pupils to the West School. Erickson and members of the Committee said they believe that system was unfair.

Either all kindergarten pupils should be taken to and from school or none, they explained. Thus, the special noontime trip at Central and West will also be discontinued, the Committee has decided.

Several Committee members expressed the feeling that town meeting expressed a desire for the School Committee to be very careful of how it spent the taxpayers' money. And they said it then became vital to decide whether an added $6400 or more would be a desirable expenditure.

Dr. Milton Meyers also pointed out that the Committee has an obligation to attract the best possible teachers to the system and to improve the curriculum wherever possible. Thus, he believed, use of such funds might better be in those fields.

In response to an audience comment that children unable to attend kindergarten may be at a disadvantage when entering the first grade, Erickson said the teachers would have to compensate for that at the time. He agreed that it would be desirable for as many children as possible to attend kindergarten but said some do not attend and teachers have to do special work with these youngsters when they enter first grade.

Can't Change District

Some parents at the meeting explained that their children could walk to the Central School, but the new district compels them to attend South School. They asked whether these youngsters could not be admitted to Central School in the fall.

But Committee members agreed that there can be no exceptions to the district boundaries without breaking down the district system completely.

In closing the meeting, Chairman Russell told the parents "You're points are well taken and you have a good argument." Commenting that there are two sides to the problem, he told the group "We want to do what is right. I hope we can arrive at a meeting of the minds."

Sullivan Sent To Italian Post

Lt. Richard Sullivan left recently for Italy, where he will be stationed for the next few years. He was accompanied by his wife the former Claire Nadeau of Lawrence and their two sons Richard III and Mark.

Lt. Sullivan graduated from Pynchard High School and attended the University of Massachusetts. He has completed two years with Anti-Submarine Squadron 31 at Norfolk, Va. He is the son of Atty. and Mrs. Richard Sullivan of Virginia rd.

Cook-out Planned By Rebekah Lodge

Indian Ridge Rebekah Lodge 136 will hold a cook-out June 17 at 6:30 at the home of Mrs. William Stopford, 50 Chestnut st.

Members are asked to bring their lunch, or food to be cooked on the outdoor grill. Coffee will be provided.

The Lodge is planning a united memorial meeting with the Odd Fellows June 25 at the Square and Compass Club.

How dare you accuse me?

Honestly, Mrs. Throckmorton, we only meant to tell you that someone was careless, yes maybe you. This carelessness caused a forest fire that destroyed thousands of forest acres, killed wildlife, ruined recreation areas. Last year about 143,000 fires burned over 6,000,000 acres of valuable forest land. Most of these fires could have been prevented if everyone had remembered to be careful. This year, be more careful than ever.

Plan to Enlist Rural Pastors In Safety Week

"Thou shalt not kill" is a religious precept applicable to all areas of accident prevention.

While recently it has been used to emphasize the moral responsibility motorists have in preventing traffic accidents, it soon will receive wider application.

The commandment probably will be heard July 20-26 during the 15th National Farm Safety Week, a seven-day attempt to promote safety consciousness among farm residents.

Suggest Daily Theme

National Farm Safety Week, an annual campaign, is cosponsored by the National Safety Council and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. They have suggested daily themes for the campaign.

The daily emphasis Sunday, July 20, is "Respect Life."

"God's most precious gift to man is human life," explained John T. Kenna, director of the Council's Church Safety Activities Division.

"Because safety is in part a moral issue, we are urging rural religious leaders to make farm safety a part of their sermons and the subject of Sunday School talks July 20."

First Coordinated Effort

While clergymen have been given help in the past in promoting Farm Safety Week, the forthcoming observance will mark the first coordinated effort to enlist rural pastors in promoting farm safety, according to Kenna.

Kenna said his efforts will be directed at urging pastors to stress the need for preventing accidents — "not only those on the farm, but any accidents involving rural people."

"We hope rural pastors will stress, in a dramatic way, the year 'round need for working and playing safely," he said.

The church division's role in the 15th National Farm Safety Week will consist of:

Discuss Farm Safety

1. Urging the thousands of rural pastors to make farm safety a part of their sermons.

2. Urging pastors to discuss farm safety in all church groups.

3. Providing pastors with material and, if desired, personal counseling on how to further farm safety.

"Accidents hit the family first," Kenna said. "And the farm certainly represents the family way of life."

"The church is the center of farm life. Where communities have had a coordinated and strong emphasis on safety by clergymen, accidents have been reduced."

'Assume Lead in Safety'

"We urge the clergy to assume a leading role in the safety movement — not only during National Farm Safety Week, but the rest of the year, too."

The July 20 "Respect Life" theme will be followed by these daily emphases:

Monday — home, Tuesday — livestock, Wednesday — falls, Thursday — highway traffic, Friday — farm machinery, and Saturday — review day.
